Daniel L Newman Rejoins United Visual, Inc to Head Sales & Business Development.

June 15, 2009 Itasca, Ill. – United Visual, Inc., an industry leader in professional audio and video systems integration announces the addition of Daniel L. Newman as Vice President, Sales and Business Development.

As Vice President of Sales and Business Development, Daniel will oversee the sales, marketing, and strategic planning functions for United Visual. Daniel originally worked for United Visual, Inc. between 2004 and 2005, and has since held several positions within the Pro AV Industry, most notably his time with AMX Corporation where he was responsible for leading channel and business development activities throughout the Central U.S. region. Most recently Daniel served as Senior Vice President of Atomoo a cutting edge provider of network managed services. A Naperville native, Daniel holds a marketing degree from Northern Illinois University as well as a Masters of Business Administration from North Central College.

“I have always had a tremendous amount of confidence in the team at United Visual” says Newman. “I am honored to have been offered such a tremendous opportunity and I look forward to participating in the continued growth of this great company. The addition of Daniel enhances United Visual’s already significant presence in the mid-west and better positions United Visual for continued growth in their core business of AV presentation system design and integration of corporate and educational spaces requiring a high degree of technology.

“We are very excited to have Daniel back at United Visual,” says Robert Carlson, Chief Operations Officer of United Visual, Inc. “He is an excellent addition to the executive staff of United Visual. His industry knowledge, experience and drive to succeed made him an ideal selection to direct sales and business development as we complete our 60th year in business. I have complete confidence that Dan will play a key role as United Visual strives to become the most respected, premier System Integrator in the market’s we serve.”

United Visual, Inc. has been active and influential in the Chicago region since their inception over 60 years ago and is ranked in the top 50 System Integrators in the nation by SCN magazine. Recent completed projects include a 2009 ProAV Spotlight Award winning system integration project for The Illinois College of Optometry in Chicago, IL.
